DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election without traverse of Group II, claims 9, 10, 16 and 17; and the species spongiform encephalopathy; in the reply filed on 3/20/08 is acknowledged.

Claims 1-8 and 11-15 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 3/20/08. The specie election is withdrawn at this time because the elected claims do not have any limitations related to said species.

Claims 9, 10, 16 and 17 are presented for examination.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 16 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. Claims 16 and 17 are drawn to pharmaceutical compositions comprising a therapeutic quantity of a compound of formula II in combination with at least one pharmaceutically acceptable vehicle.

The specification is directed to screening assays and kits for identifying inhibitors of prion activity. The elected compounds have been shown to exhibit some anti-prion activity by these screens. The tests are in vitro and do not involve testing with animal models of any type of disease. The specification lacks information related to what the elected compounds may be effective for treating. Likewise, there is no disclosure that directs the skilled artisan to determining what constitutes an “effective amount”

Claims drawn to pharmaceutically acceptable compositions and to methods of administering said compositions to humans generally require supporting evidence because of the unpredictability in biological responses to therapeutic treatments. In particular, prion-related diseases are not well understood and there is no treatment for them. The specification is directed to screening assays. The specification fails to provide guidance that would enable a person of skill in the art to determine which prion-related maladies could be treated by a pharmaceutical composition of the elected compounds. The specification fails to provide guidance as to how the skilled artisan would determine a therapeutically effective amount. Therefore, claims 16 and 17 are not enabled by the disclosure.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 9 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Cookson. Cookson teaches compound 17 (p. 1851) which is 6-aminophenanthridine. This compound meets the variable limitations of claims 9 and 10 wherein R' is amino and p and n are both zero. Cookson does not teach that the compounds are medicaments. However, the recitation "a medicament" has not been given patentable weight because the recitation occurs in the preamble. A preamble is generally not accorded any patentable weight where it merely recites the purpose of a process or the intended use of a structure, and where the body of the claim does not depend on the preamble for completeness but, instead, the process steps or structural limitations are able to stand alone. See In re Hirao, 535 F.2d 67, 190 USPQ 15 (CCPA 1976) and Kropa v. Robie, 187 F.2d 150, 152, 88 USPQ 478, 481 (CCPA 1951).

Claims 9 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Donnelly (previously cited in the Office Action mailed 2/25/08).

Donnelly discloses compound 9 (p. 1560) which meets the structural requirements of the compounds of instant claims 9 and 10 wherein R' is amino and the 2-position on the aryl ring is substituted by F. The preamble "a medicament" is not given patentable weight. A preamble is generally not accorded any patentable weight where it merely recites the purpose of a process or the intended use of a structure, and where the body of the claim does not depend on the preamble for completeness but, instead, the process steps or structural limitations are able to stand alone. See In re Hirao, 535

F.2d 67, 190 USPQ 15 (CCPA 1976) and Kropa v. Robie, 187 F.2d 150, 152, 88 USPQ 478, 481 (CCPA 1951).

Double Patenting

A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

Claims 9, 10, 16 and 17 are provisionally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 9, 10, 16 and 17 of copending Application No. 11/483,822. This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.
